ANNOUNCING THE 18th ANNUAL MIDSUMMER MUSIC DREAM FESTIVAL

The 18th Midsummer Music Dream Festival is scheduled to take place July 28 - August 6th, 2023, featuring fourteen concerts. At Midsummer Music Dream / Songe d'été en musique musicians and community collaborate in an environment committed to excellence in musicianship and performance.

Celebrating its 18th season of making music, the ten-day festival will include music by DeFalla, Hirsh (Canadian Premiere), Bach, Leclerc, Gagnon, Britten, Puccini, and many others.

Festival 2023 will feature a Lambton 175th Celebration anniversary concert which will include music of Quebecois composers from "Yesterday to Today." This year will also include a free children's concert featuring arias from the "Magic Flute" and "Hansel and Gretel" along with a children's choir. Singers from the opera vocal studio will again participate in the festival with selections from the American Musical Theater and French Melodie along with Opera Scenes and Aria concerts. A special concert this season "Celebrated Oratorios and Sacred Works for Voice and Organ" will feature the organ of Église Sainte-Agnès in Lac Mégantic.

The festival would like to thank the MRC of Granit, the municipalities and the people of Lambton, Stornoway, Saint-Romain, Stratford and Lac Drolet, MP Samuel Poulin de Beauce-Sud, MP François Jacques de Mégantic and Hydro-Québec for their support over the years.
